JOHN I. WINTER.

Practically all the insurance companies' risks in the so-called trust tobacco plants have canceled the policies in the Western part of Kentucky by telegraph, and no more will be issued until the present disturbances subside. The investigation of the recent troubles was taken up by State Fire Marshal Ayres Monday, but little was accomplished on account of the reluctance of witnesses to tell what they know.

DO YOU LIKE CANNED PEAS

If so try a can La France Sweet Wrinkle, 15c a can. M. C. RUSSELL CO.

COATS

The separate coat is again a feature of the winter styles. In its best form—Wooltex, of course,—it is of generous cut and rather simple trimming scheme. Its easy fit suggests, rather than conceals, the perfect figure. The looser of the loose coats have just the proper fullness for grace and swing.

All prices between $7 1/2 and $30 and superb value in every dollar's worth.

WARNER'S Rust-Proof

For the Generously Proportioned Figure.

The fan-shaped front is more than ornamental. It flattens the abdomen without unpleasant pressure. The long skirts closely envelop the hips and give graceful lines to the figure. Fine, firm Coutille.

Price, $1.00.
